Tables Released By: N/A

Other Dinner Announcements:

We're hoping for the event to be more free moving and socializing instead of having tables released and a formal sit down dinner. I think once speeches are over we can encourage guests to move around the room to check out the food stations, request their favorite songs for the pianos, sign our guestbook, dance, and mingle!

We'll have table assignments just to ensure every guest has a seat and a place to put down their things, but we're hoping guests don't feel like they have to stay seated there and can move around the room.

Last Song Of Night: I Will Always Love You - Whitney Houston

Songs Per Heritage: Rattlin Bog - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=U58ES0aiUJo> -- Can we play this toward the end of the night (we would for sure need to cut it down or fade it out after a few minutes since it's long!) We're adding it to our website FAQs so hopefully people will learn it! This could also work for dueling pianos if it gets requested!

We also have a Hollowed song that we'd want to sing! We can call up a few family members to help with it (Dan (father of bride), Katie, Barbie, and Myles)! It's to this tune: <https://youtu.be/dzKc5e6NTuc>

Tipping: Yes

Tips Go To: Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago

Tip Jar: Yes

Tip Promotion: Mention it a few times

Alcohol/Bar

Bar In Same Room As Dance Area: Yes

Type: Open

Additional Information: 2nd to last song - Rattlin Bog

We'll be having a few songs that we'd like to play throughout the night that are dedicated to family members who will be dancing in our hearts during the wedding. We added the songs the the requests, but if we could make sure they get played at some point that would be great (whether it's during the dueling pianos or dj)! I also outlined below.

- Somewhere Over the Rainbow (playing this song during ceremony)
- The Incredits (Mother and Father of Bride walk in song)
- Banana Boat (Day-O)
- That's Amore
- Celebration
- Chicago
- Uptown Funk
- Don't Stop Believing
- Take Me Out to the Ball Game

I also added other songs we're hoping to play to recorded and request submitting on the RSVPs, but if they come on dueling pianos we can remove them from the DJ set!
